

- Is the main page captivating enough or do you need to add more?
- Did you think that the design of our category selection on the main page provides enough information to the viewer?
- Would you like to see more about what the SDG's are or was this enough?
- Did you like the small graph and facts box? Does it require more or less?
- Which data page orientation do you prefer, vertical or horizontal style?
- Overall, do you think any of our UI choices take away from what you are looking for in your website?
- Did you think that there is anything that a viewer of our website could be looking for, or need to see that we are missing?
- Any strong dislikes that gave you a negative emotion? Or any strong like that need in the website?
- Do you enjoy the photos that we used? Would you prefer photos that are a bit more visually even at the sacrifice of losing Regina's identity? If so, what are you looking for?
